THE RAINBOW OF GOD'S PROMISE / GENESIS 8:20 - 9:17 23 GENESIS 10:1

God Always Keeps His Promises

"I will set My rain-bow in the cloud, and it will be something special to see because of an agreement between Me and the earth."
GENESIS 9:13

Drip, drip, drip! Plop, plop, plop! Noah was probably tired of all that rain. When he finally stepped off the ark, God said, "Look up, Noah!" Way up high, in a beautiful blue sky, Noah saw something amazing: a beautiful rainbow with brilliant colors—red, orange, yellow, green, blue, and purple. Have you ever seen a rainbow in the sky? Sometimes you can see one after a big storm. The colorful rainbow is a promise from God that He won't ever destroy the earth with floodwaters again. God is a promise keeper. What about you? Can you keep a promise?

Lord, thanks for Your promise! I'm going to do my best to keep my promises, too. Amen.

God's Agreement with Noah

9 God made good come to Noah and his sons, and said to them, "Have many children, and cover the earth. 2 Every animal of the earth, every bird of the sky, everything that moves on the ground, and all the fish of the sea will be afraid of you. They are given into your hand. 3 Every moving thing that lives will be food for you. I give all to you as I gave you the green plants. 4 But you must not eat meat with blood in it because that is its life. 5 For sure, I will take the life of every animal and every person for taking a life. I will punish every man's brother for taking the life of man. 6 Whoever takes the life of a man will have his life taken. For God made man to be like Him. 7 As for you, have many children. Cover the earth with many people."

8 Then God said to Noah and his sons, 9 "See, I make My agreement with you, and with your seed after you, 10 and with every living thing that is with you, birds and animals and every thing that moves on the earth. So they may give birth and become many upon the earth." 11 So Noah went out with his sons and his wife and his sons' wives. 19 Every animal, every bird, everything that moves on the earth, went out of the large boat by their families.

20 Then Noah built an altar to the Lord. He took of every clean animal and every clean bird, and gave burnt gifts in worship on the altar. 21 Then the Lord smelled a pleasing smell. And the Lord said to Himself, "I will never again curse the ground because of man, for the desire of man's heart is evil from his youth. Nor will I ever again destroy every living thing as I have done. 22 While the earth lasts, planting time and gathering time, cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night will not end."

the covering off the large boat, and looked out and saw that the earth was dry. 14 In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the ground was dry. 15 Then God said to Noah, 16 "Go out of the boat, you and your wife and your sons and your sons' wives with you. 17 Bring out with you every living thing of all flesh that is with you, birds and animals and every-thing that moves on the earth. So they may give birth and become many upon the earth." 18 So Noah went out with his sons and his wife and his sons' wives. 19 Every animal, every bird, everything that moves on the earth, went out of the large boat by their families.

20 Then Noah built an altar to the Lord. He took of every clean animal and every clean bird, and gave burnt gifts in worship on the altar. 21 Then the Lord smelled a pleasing smell. And the Lord said to Himself, "I will never again curse the ground because of man, for the desire of man's heart is evil from his youth. Nor will I ever destroy the earth with floodwaters again. God is a promise keeper. What about you? Can you keep a promise?

flood. There will never again be a flood to destroy the earth." 12 Then God said, "This is something special to see for all time, because of the agreement that I am making between Me and you and every living thing that is with you: 13 I will set My rainbow in the cloud, and it will be something special to see because of an agreement between Me and the earth. 14 When I bring clouds over the earth and the rainbow is seen in the clouds, 15 I will remember My agreement that is between Me and you and every living thing of all flesh. Never again will the water become a flood to destroy all flesh. 16 When the rainbow is in the cloud, I will look upon it to remember the agreement that will last forever between God and every living thing of all flesh that is on the earth." 17 God said to Noah, "This is the special thing to see because of the agreement I have made between Me and all flesh upon the earth."

Noah and His Sons

18 The sons of Noah who came out of the large boat were Shem, Ham and Japheth. Ham was the father of Canaan. 19 These three were the sons of Noah. And all the people of the earth came from them.

20 Then Noah became a farmer and planted a grape-field. 21 And he drank of the wine, and drank too much, and lay without covering himself in his tent. 22 Then Ham, the father of Canaan, saw that his father was without clothes. And he told his two brothers outside. 23 But Shem and Japheth took a coat and laid it upon their shoulders and walked in with their backs toward their father and covered him. Their faces were turned away, so that they did not see their father without clothes. 24 When Noah awoke from his wine, he knew what his youngest son had done to him. 25 So he said, "May Canaan be cursed! He will be a servant of servants to his brothers." 26 He also said, "Honor and thanks be to the Lord, the God of Shem. Let Canaan be his servant. 27 May God make Japheth great. Let him live in the tents of Shem. And let Canaan be his servants."

28 Noah lived 350 years after the flood. 29 So Noah lived 950 years, and he died.

The Families after Noah's Sons

10 These are the families of Shem, Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and of their families. Sons were born to them after the flood.
